

Instructor-led Online Training ER/Studio Business Architect

Objective	The objective of the training is to learn how to effectively build high quality BPMN 2 compliant business process models using ER/Studio Business Architect.
Duration	Flexible 4 half-day sessions.
Audience	This course is intended for a variety of audiences, including enterprise architects, business and data architects, process modelers, business analysts, process analysts, data stewards and project managers.
Topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The BPMN Standard• Business Process Model Development using BPMN 2• Process to Data Association• Impact Analysis• Conceptual Modeling• Enterprise Architecture Alignment
Approach	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop a beginning to end business process model using ER/Studio.• Use a real life case study.• Allocate at least 50% of training time to hands-on exercises.• Align data and business process models within an enterprise framework.• Achieve benefits such as process model quality, process efficiency, productivity and collaboration.
Case Study	Development of a business process model for a global equity trading operation.
Company	e-Modelers is a professional services company providing training, consulting and mentoring in enterprise architecture and modeling using ER/Studio. Since 2003, we delivered ER/Studio professional services to over 80 U.S. and Canadian clients including Fortune 500 companies and U.S. government institutions.
Instructor	Dr. Nicholas Khabbaz, Senior ER/Studio Trainer and Enterprise Architect
Contact	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Telephone: 925-683-4210• email: info@emodelers.com; training@emodelers.com